

THE dAMBEST...

News for 10/31/06

Wowee! Another fabulous weekend!

dAMBEST carburetors and customers are not followers but leaders. The example was set by Scott MacKay who qualified first with a 7.32 (-.67 under index), but with the poor weather, didn't stay to back up the record which would have reset his 8.39 set last week.

Calvin Hill did stay and reset the record to 8.27 from his last week's record of 8.34.

Congratulations, gentlemen!

Due to the many requests for tuning classes, starting some time next year, they will be held one Saturday a month from 9 AM to 1 PM. Price will be $500 per party - that's for one person or the whole crew. Register early!
